

We have been notified that you are thinking of changing the law that Indiana set for phone calls from businesses trying to sell us stuff. We didn't answer our phone until the Indiana law started, We got at least 3 calls a day...we let the answering machine censor our calls. We don't sit by the phone...and it's a pain in the neck just running to answer the phone. Then you couldn't get rid of them by saying I'm not interested!

It's been nice and quiet since the Indiana law went into force. (Except for the 2 weeks before the election and they all thought that they should be able to call us...guess they didn't know that we already knew who we were voting for at that time!)

Why should We pay for phone service for these businesses to pester us? They don't pay anything for our phone when they use it to try and take our time for their commercials! Our time is just as valuable as any one that is working... So if you want to change that Indiana law on phone calls.....try making it stricter....no calls for candidates, no calls for money, no calls for businesses trying to sell us stuff.

Sincerely
